

“What Are You Capable Of?”

AP Drawing Studio – Week 1

Due Friday, Sept. 11

Objective:

1. Students will review how to draw in layers by watching a brief video tutorial.
2. Students will render, to the best of their ability, an accurate portrayal of an apple to show their current drawing skill and aptitude.

Review:

Go to Crimsonart.net > Courses > AP Drawing > Watch the brief video tutorial on “How to Draw an Apple”.

Create:

Your challenge is to take an apple and render it with colored pencil or pastel. You then have the freedom to make this apple drawing as artistic and aesthetically pleasing as possible. Your problem lies within deciding on composition size, organization and manipulation of material.

Rubric:

- 4 – Extreme and accurate detail and realism towards drawing the apple in color. Apple goes beyond just “the apple”. Artwork is very aesthetically pleasing.
- 3 – Accurate detail in shading and rendering the apple in color. Artwork is drawn well.
- 2 – Some detail in shading and some accurate portrayal of an apple in color. Artwork has some flaws.
- 1 – Little to no detail in shading. Drawing was rushed with many flaws and does not portray an apple.
